EASTER WORSHIP
APRIL 20, 2025 10:00 AM

SETTING THREE—EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN WORSHIP

- * Welcome to worship at Good Shepherd. We warmly greet you in the name of the Lord and give God thanks for your presence today.
- * Most hymns are found in the Hymnal located in the pews. Hymns from other hymnals will be printed and provided in the insert.
- * All baptized believing Christians are welcome to gather at the altar for Holy Communion. Grape juice and low gluten wafers are available. Please see a greeter prior to the beginning of service.

The Resurrection of our Lord

We begin our worship today with the dramatic presentation of voices shouting as we proclaim Jesus' resurrection to life eternal. The Paschal candle enters, bringing the light of Christ back into the world. The Bible returns, showing that the Word of God made flesh continues to live in our midst. And the cross leads the procession, reminding us that through his suffering, Jesus brings us eternal life.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray, O God, you gave your only Son to suffer death on the cross for our redemption, and by his glorious resurrection you delivered us from the power of death. Make us die every day to sin, that we may live with him forever in the joy of the resurrection, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

We sit.

First Lesson Acts 10:34-43 (NRSV)

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

L: Word of God, Word of Life.

C: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 118:1-2, 14-24 (CHANTED OR READ RESPONSIVELY)

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for the LORD is good;
God's mercy en-`dures forever.
- 2 Let Israel `now declare,
"God's mercy en-`dures forever."
- 14 The LORD is my strength `and my song,
and has become `my salvation.
- 15 Shouts of rejoicing and salvation echo in the tents `of the righteous:
"The right hand of the `LORD acts valiantly!
- 16 The right hand of the LORD `is exalted!
The right hand of the `LORD acts valiantly!"
- 17 I shall not `die, but live,
and declare the works `of the LORD. refrain
- 18 The LORD indeed pun-`ished me sorely,
but did not hand me o-`ver to death.
- 19 Open for me the `gates of righteousness;
I will enter them and give thanks `to the LORD.
- 20 "This is the gate `of the LORD;
here the righ-`teous may enter."
- 21 I give thanks to you, for you have `answered me
and you have become `my salvation. refrain
- 22 The stone that the build-`ers rejected
has become the chief `cornerstone.
- 23 By the LORD has `this been done;
it is marvelous `in our eyes.
- 24 This is the day that the `LORD has made;
let us rejoice and be `glad in it. refrain

Second Lesson

1 Corinthians 15:1-11 (NRSV)

Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

L: Word of God, Word of Life.

C: Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA VERSE

P: The Holy Gospel according to Luke, the 24th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel

Luke 24: 1-12 (NRSV)

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, ‘Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.' Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

PROPER PREFACE

P: It is indeed right and salutary ...join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

The minister continues with the Eucharistic prayer, which on this celebration of Christ's Resurrection recounts God's salvation activity throughout history. It recalls God working to create and to save God's people, incorporating us into the communion of all Saints who precede us, and bringing us into everlasting life.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

P: Blessed are you, O God of the universe. Your mercy is everlasting and your faithfulness endures from age to age.

Praise to you for creating the heavens and the earth.

Praise to you for saving the earth from the waters of the flood.

Praise to you for bringing the Israelites safely through the sea.

Praise to you for leading your people through the wilderness to the land of milk and honey.

Praise to you for the words and deeds of Jesus, your anointed one.

Praise to you for the death and resurrection of Christ.

Praise to you for your Spirit poured out on all nations.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

With this bread and cup we remember our Lord's passover from death to life as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

C: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

P: O God of resurrection and new life: Pour out your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts of bread and wine.

Bless this feast. Grace our table with your presence.

C: Come, Holy Spirit.

P: Reveal yourself to us in the breaking of the bread.

Raise us up as the body of Christ for the world.

Breathe new life into us.

Send us forth, burning with justice, peace, and love.

C: Come, Holy Spirit.

P: With your holy ones of all times and places,

with the earth and all its creatures, with sun and moon and stars,

we praise you, O God, blessed and holy Trinity, now and forever.

C: Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

P: Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:

C: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

FOOD PANTRY

The Food Pantry was opened on Monday, March 17, 2025, from 10:00 a.m. until Noon. Fifteen (15) people came, and food was given out for thirty-nine (39). My deepest heart-felt thanks to Felicia Brandt, Marilyn Fahringer, and Randy Moore for helping out at the Pantry with me. Extra special thanks to Nancy McLoughlin for getting the word out about the Pantry via radio and Facebook. Nancy has been doing this job for a few years now and I have neglected to recognize her. Thank you, Nancy, for all of your help.

Thank you to everyone who have already brought in plastic bags. This is a big help for the Food Pantry, Community Dinner, and Sleeping Mats for the Homeless. When cleaning out your closets, if you happen to come across plastic/cloth totes, please consider donating them to the Food Pantry. Thank you.

Thank you to everyone at The Good Shepherd for your donations (food and/or monetary), support, and prayers for the Pantry. Working together we can make a difference in our community with God's help and love.

The next Food Pantry will be held on Monday, April 21.
